
About our speaker:

Anthony P. Raimondo, Esq

McCormick, Barstow, Sheppard, Wayte
& Carruth LLP

Attorney Anthony Raimondo specializes in labor relations and employment law, including management representation in counter-organizing campaigns, unfair labor practice defense, grievance and arbitration defense, and collective bargaining negotiations. He represents employers in state and federal courts in actions ranging from harassment and discrimination to wage and hour disputes. Defends employers in administrative agency proceedings and investigations including the National Labor Relations Board, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, the California Labor Commissioner, U.S. Department of Labor, Cal/OSHA, EEOC, and others.

Experience: Mr. Raimondo has been representing employers since 2001 when he left the Fresno County Public Defender's office to enter private practice. He has assisted employers with strategic planning in labor relations, and has counseled employers in day to day workplace issues to avoid litigation. Mr. Raimondo has successfully turned back organizing campaigns from some of America's most aggressive unions, and has negotiated favorable contracts for unionized employers. Mr. Raimondo has assisted clients with government investigations and audits, and regularly defends wage claims before the California Labor Commissioner.

What is the Porterville Employer
Advisory Council?

The Employer Advisory Council is a group of local employers who establish and maintain a working relationship between the Employment Development Department, area employers, the Porterville Chamber of Commerce, and the community at large.

The partnering entities serve employers in the communities located in Southeastern Tulare County. Six seminars are offered annually in an effort to provide employers with information essential to the operation of their businesses. Topics may include employee motivation, Cal/OSHA, labor law compliance, workers compensation, payroll, and hiring-training-termination.
